Renewing your passport

Key points

- Renewing is a quick and streamlined way to get a new passport
- You don't need to fill out a full application form or provide supporting documentation
- We provide eligible applicants with a one-page renewal form, already filled out

What you need

When you want to renew your passport, we will provide you with a one-page renewal form pre-completed with your personal details, if you are eligible. This pre-completed form streamlines the renewal process.

You do not need to supply any supporting documentation when you lodge your renewal form. However, you will need to provide two suitable colour photographs of yourself that are no more than six months old and present your previous Australian passport. Your previous passport will be physically cancelled.

Obtaining a renewal form

Online – follow the prompts at www.passports.gov.au to obtain a pre-completed renewal form and print it from the screen. You can also ask online for a pre-completed form to be mailed to you.

In Australia – call the Australian Passport Information Service on 131 232 to arrange for a pre-completed renewal form to be mailed to you.

Overseas – contact the nearest Australian diplomatic mission or consulate. The passports staff will mail out a pre-completed renewal form or you can collect it from the mission or consulate.

You should lodge the renewal form in person in Australia at an Australia Post outlet. To find an Australia Post outlet near you which provides passport services, call Australia Post on 131 318 or visit www.austlii.com.au. If overseas, contact the nearest Australian diplomatic mission or consulate for details on how to lodge the form.

Who is eligible?

Not everyone is eligible to use the renewal form. In particular, you cannot use it if your previous passport was lost or stolen (you will need to use a full passport application form instead). So before trying to renew, use the following checklists to make sure you are eligible.

You can apply for renewal if:

- you are an Australian citizen aged 18 years or over, and
 - you hold an Australian adult passport that was issued on or after 1 July 2000, or an Australian child passport that was issued when you were 16 years of age or over on or after 1 July 2005, and
 - your passport was valid for at least two years when issued, and
 - your passport was issued with your current personal details (i.e. name, date of birth, place of birth and sex).
- Note: You will need to retain your previous passport and present it when you apply for renewal.*

You cannot apply for renewal if:

- you are not an Australian citizen, or
- your passport was reported lost or stolen (or cannot be presented), or
- your passport was issued with a validity of less than two years, or
- you have changed your name or sex since your previous passport was issued, or
- your adult passport was issued before 1 July 2000, or
- your child passport was issued before you were 16 years of age or before 1 July 2005.

Protect your identity
Keep your passport safe at all times. Lost or stolen passports cause inconvenience and may be used by others to assume your identity for illegal activities. Report any loss or theft immediately.

Providing two identical photos of yourself
Your photos: You must provide two identical colour photos that are less than six months old and meet Australian Passport Office standards. For full details of our standards visit our website, or refer to our 'General photo guidelines' brochure, available online or through APIS. Photos that do not meet our requirements will be rejected and this will delay the issue of your passport.

Notice about the collection, use and disclosure of personal information
The Australian Passports Act 2005 authorises the Australian Passport Office of the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade to collect the personal information provided with this application for an Australian passport, including supporting documents and photos, to determine the applicant's eligibility. Without this information we are unable to process your application.

We may also collect personal information from third parties such as law enforcement or security agencies, where those third parties provide us with information which is relevant to this application for a passport.

We may disclose your personal information for the provision of consular services; and to other entities or individuals who are specified in the Australian Passports Act 2005, such as:

- the immigration department, civil registries and licensing authorities that can verify information and assist to establish your identity and eligibility
- Interpol and its member countries; other countries with which we have an agreement for purposes such as advising about the status of a passport; law enforcement authorities; Australian border authorities to facilitate international travel; and law courts for the operation of family law and related matters.

We are authorised by law to disclose your personal information to foreign border authorities:

- if we suspect there is unlawful activity relating to the passport
- for law enforcement purposes
- in countries with which Australia participates in the Regional Movement Alert system.

We may also use your current and past information for testing, training and research purposes (phone APIS if you object).

For information on how to access or correct personal information and how to complain about a breach of privacy, refer to the 'Protecting your privacy' brochure, available on our website, through APIS or an Australian diplomatic mission or consulate.
