

Complete warranty protection as dependable as the company behind it

A long-term warranty is only as dependable as the company backing it. That's why a trusted relationship with your solar panel manufacturer should be given careful consideration. Backed by one of America's most trusted brands and over a century of stability, Panasonic AllGuard and TripleGuard warranties cover your solar panel system for performance, parts, and labor for 25 years³.

The protection you need. The confidence you deserve.

- Comprehensive warranties that are easy to trust
- Highest quality components - built to last
- 45+ years in solar R&D, 100+ years in business
- Over 200 registered solar technology patents
- Diversified portfolio of solutions company-wide
